

MONSTER

and out they walked in single file and through the door i saw you smile and i, i was the only one to know they tied a rag across my eyes a silver spoon to feed me lies and you, you were the only one to know.

so find your monster don't tell your friends and write your name on the back of the page just to try pull the flowers but keep your hands clean leave the earth in a jar but come back to it

every time i stick around it's like we're all in we're just the same and evidently we're the smallest and i get old, old, get out of the summer every time you come around i know we've gone in and never sane, well, believe me it's appalling you don't get old or come out of the space between the walls between the cracks under the floors won't you..

rise south dakota don't you want to know you went so far and don't you go home and like every time I'll run you'll run we'll run i'll run you'll run and we'll rise south dakota don't you want to
i'll run you'll run and we'll run

DAUGHTER

come fill another glass i'm still under water
warm up your father's car like the oldest daughter
i know what to say,
i know i'm spoken for

we're still under water turn up the static now weather's getting hotter

i know we're spoken for i don't want to know where you found that old slice of a smile something entirely unfair it's one thing i'll keep just the same and it's one thing i'll keep just the same, just the same
